14 & 15: Southern at War

Turn back the clock to the days of the Second World War, with soldiers, military vehicles, displays and even concert parties for you to enjoy!

28, 29 & 30: 50th Anniversary of Closure

50 years ago British Railways closed the Bluebell line between Lewes and East Grinstead. This first closure was found to be illegal and the line reopened for a short period. A gala celebrating the anniversary with a train service of the period.

NEW FOR 2005: Observation Car Specials

3, 4, 11 & 12: "Bluebell" Specials

See the woods carpeted in bluebells.

Departures at 12.30 and 2.30 from Sheffield Park.

The Observation Car is limited to 70 seats per train.

Advance booking essential: Tel 01825 720800

Two special events this month provide re-enactments from the 1940s and '50s, with the Southern at War, and a Gala event to remember the first closure of the line in May 1955.
